After a COVID hiatus, we're reviving a long-time Dunwoody tradition honoring those serving in our Armed Forces. we are ready to personally meet and greet our service personnel to thank them in person for their bravery and commitment to serve us. We will be serving the "All American" lunch of hot dogs, chips, homemade cookies, fresh fruit, bottled water ... and this time we will be adding a portion of baked Ziti. We expect 75-100 service personnel and need 10 volunteers and six cookie bakers (cookies to be delivered to Charlie the week of March 13).

Contact Charlie Augello to enlist as a volunteer or cookie baker - by email at Italian@e48thstreetmarket.com
